Hurricane Katrina

August 29, 2005

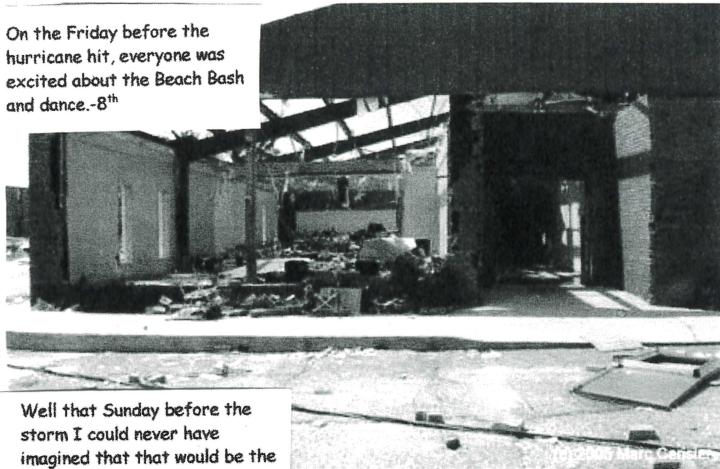

through the eyes of our students...

"The water washed away EVERYTHING but the chance to begin again..."

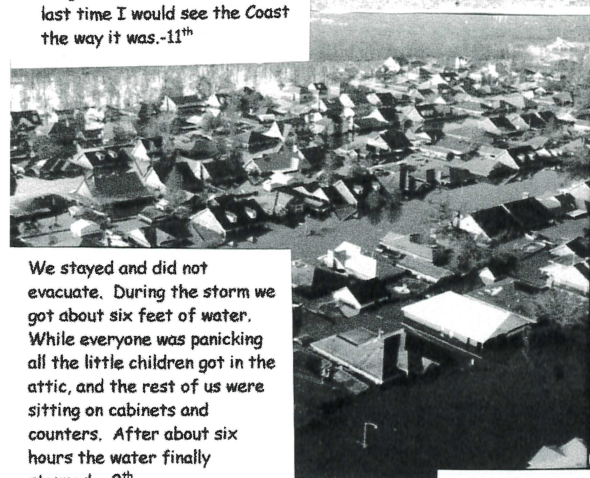

-Brian Andreas

On the Friday before the hurricane hit, everyone was excited about the Beach Bash and dance.-8th

Well that Sunday before the storm I could never have imagined that that would be the last time I would see the Coast the way it was.-11th

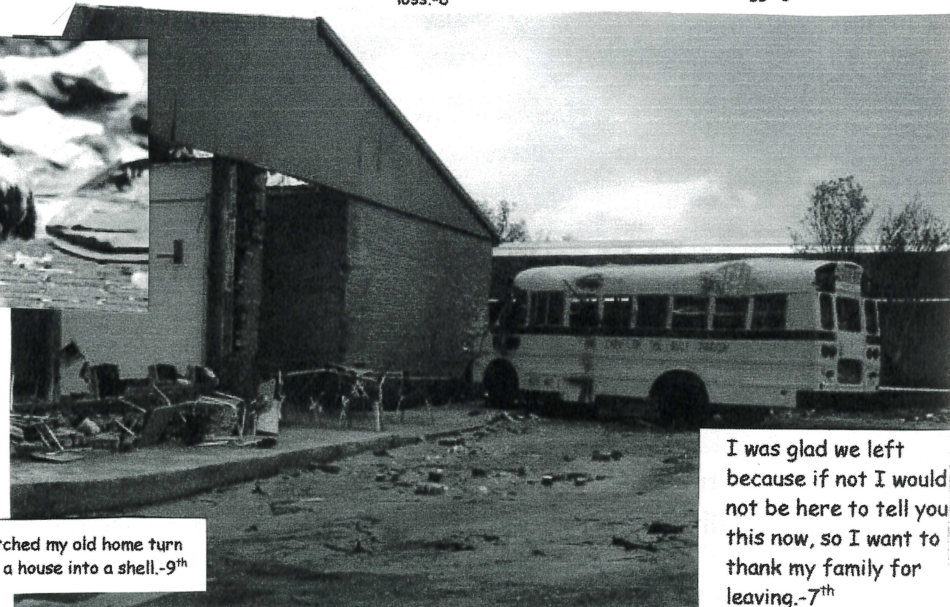

We stayed and did not evacuate. During the storm we got about six feet of water. While everyone was panicking all the little children got in the attic, and the rest of us were sitting on cabinets and counters. After about six hours the water finally stopped...-8th

We were all in one room, talking, praying, and comforting one another...-7th

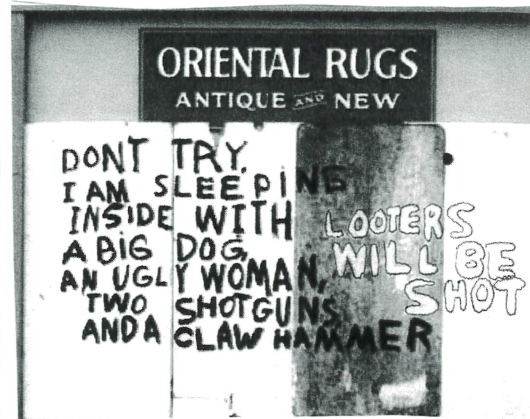

I shook in fear of what would happen next. I was standing in water waist high trying to get upstairs to the roof while holding my dog in my arms.-11th

I watched my old home turn from a house into a shell.-9th

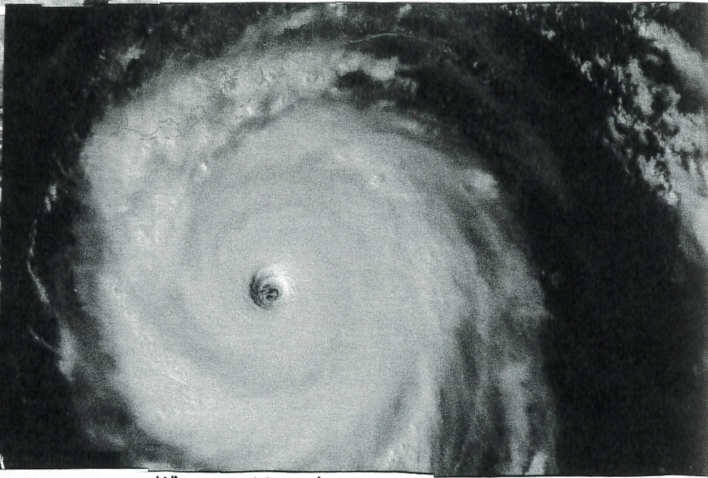

I was glad we left because if not I would not be here to tell you this now, so I want to thank my family for leaving.-7th

When we got to our house everything was ruined and all of my pets died...I miss everything I lost, like baby pictures, clothes, and pets. It's a terrible loss.-8th

There wasn't a house still standing whole; water had gutted them. We saw families on the street crying, praying, and hugging.-8th

We were watching the news about New Orleans but nothing about Mississippi. We soon found out our houses were destroyed...-8th

The worst part of the Hurricane Katrina experience was not knowing if your friends and family were ok. There was no communication for a while and the fact that you did not know was overwhelming.-11th

Even though I knew the phone lines were down, I dialed their numbers over and over again, hoping to get in touch with somebody. I was scared because I did not know who was alive or what was going to happen next.-8th

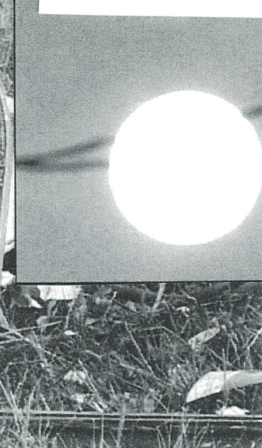

I wearily trudged into the gutted church a few hours later, and it seemed like even God had packed up and left.-11th

When I had to move to another town, everyone I met was so kind and caring. I will always remember this particular experience.-10th

I've never been so sad in my life.-11th

When all the lights were out, I felt like I needed the light of God.-9th

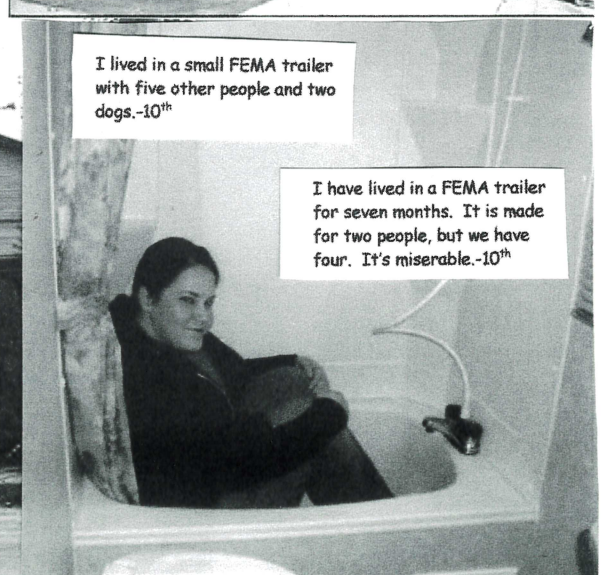

To leave everything behind, your friends, your school, your room, your house, is the worst feeling but everything becomes even worse when you come back and nothing of what you once had is there...-11th

We went back home to live in our wall-less, carpet-less, power-less house so that I could go to school.-8th

FEMA trailers have amazing possibilities!-10th

I lived in a small FEMA trailer with five other people and two dogs.-10th

I have lived in a FEMA trailer for seven months. It is made for two people, but we have four. It's miserable.-10th

I met the most amazing people that I would not have met had Katrina not come.-10th

May God bless and keep you always,
May your wishes all come true,
May you always do for others
And let others do for you.
May you build a ladder to the stars
And climb on every rung,
May you stay forever young.

May you grow up to be righteous,
May you grow up to be true,
May you always know the truth
And see the lights surrounding you.
May you always be courageous,
Stand upright and be strong,
May you stay forever young.

May your hands always be busy,
May your feet always be swift,
May you have a strong foundation
When the winds of changes shift.
May your heart always be joyful,
May your song always be sung,
May you stay forever young.

We will never be this lucky again.
